OHIO U. PRESIDENT TO TALK NEXT WEEK

To Discuss Reconstruction -Iohn Evvard, Also Here Farmers' Week.

NOTIED

Former Governor Stuart of Virginia and T. E. Wilson to Be Here.

Dr. W. O. Thompson, chairman of the European Agricultural Commission has telegraphed Secretary Jewell Mayes of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture that he will be able to speak here Farmers' Week on January 23. Dr. Thompson is president of the Ohio State University and of the Ohio State Agricultural College.

He has just returned from France. where he studied the problems of warstricken Europe. His message to the visitors at Farmers' Week will deal with reconstruction work, especially the absorption of the returning soldier into civilian life and its effect upon agriculture after the war.

John Evvard of Iowa also has as sured Secretary Mayes that he will be present during Farmers' Week. Mr. Evvard is a graduate of the University, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture in 1911. He has done much original work on the subject of hog feeding and is called the originator of "the cafeteria plan of hog feeding", that is allowing the hogs to select their food from a variety placed before them.

While at the University he specialized in animal husbandry, devoting his attention to feeding problems. He is a contributor to many magazines. He will lecture January 22 on cheapening the cost of pork production.

Former Governor Henry C. Stuart of Virginia will speak Monday, January 20. Governor Stuart is chairman of the Live Stock Board of the Federal Food Administration. He will speak on the problem of cattle feed-

On Wednesday night, January 23, Dr. C. O. Gill of Hurtland, Vt., will speak on "Six Thousand Country Churches". Doctor Gill conducted a rural church survey of Ohio.

Thomas E. Wilson, president of Wilson & Company, packers, will deliver an address January 20. He will speak about the relations of packer and farmer.

HENRY C. STUART TO BE HERE Governor of Virginia, Who Is a Farmer, to Speak Farmers' Week.

Henry C. Stuart, former Governor of Virginia who will speak here Farmers' Week, is a real farmer and is considered one of the world's best farmers. When the President was in search of "the man" to represent America's greatest industry, agriculture on the War Industries Board, he chose Governor Stuart because of his practical agricultural achievements.

Governor Stuart is also Chairman of the Agricultural Advisory Commit- pool will open later in the season. tee of the United States Government. and he considers these two positions even greater than the governorship because he is the representative in Washington of all farmers.

tural career on his ancestral home in Virginia, which consisted of 55,000 adequately paid. This was announced a mortgage for the greater part of the purchase price.

He began raising pure bred cattle. and sold them to his neighbors so cheap that some questioned his business judgment; but it was in this way that he got the community and state interested in producing better live stock. In European and American markets the beef cattle which grazed on his excellent bluegrass pastures easily rivaled those corn-fed by other stock men.

Governor Stuart will speak at Farmers' Week in Columbia, Tuesday night, January 21, on "Lessons of the War for Agriculture."

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE THANKED Mumford Sends Word of Appreciation to All State Members.

F. B. Mumford, chairman of the Missouri Council of Defense, is sending to all members of the Council the following word of appreciation:

In April, 1917, his Excellency, Honorable Frederick D. Gardner, Governor of Missouri, appointed the Missouri Council of Defense to be "the supreme authority of the Commonwealth in relation to the state's duties to the nation during the entire period of the war."

The chief duty of the Council of Defense was to mobilize all of the resources of Missouri, to the end that this State should do its full share in helping to win the war. To accomplish this purpose the Council immediately authorized the Chairman to organize County and Township Councils of Defense to include the entire population of the State. These groups of patriotic men and women have been real representatives of the Government in their several localities. They have helped to increase food production, conserve all materials essential to the successful conduct of a great war, instilled patriotism and national spirit in the minds of the people, and in all these ways have sustained the morale of the civilian population. The emergency is past. The war has been won. Your patriotic service has not only saved this nation from the domination of a foreign power, but has saved the world from the terrors of an autocratic regime.

It is hoped that you will maintain your organization. The National Council of Defense has urged all Councils of Defense to hold their organization together until demobilization has been accomplished. It is certain that you can be of very great service in many reconstruction plans. We may be permitted to express the hope SPEAKERS that your organization, so efficient in war time, may become equally efficient and successful in the many peace activities which are to follow. The Missouri Council of Defense hereby extends to you its most sincere appreciation, recognizing full well the great importance of the work you have done.

Y. N. C. A. PLANS YEAR'S WORK Jane Addams to Be Entertained When She Visits City.

The Y.M.C.A., in conjunction with the Y.W.C.A. of the University, will entertain Miss Jane Addams at a lough, "nor was it the particular reluncheon or dinner when she visits Columbia next week to appear on the Farmers' Week program, if arrangements proposed at a meeting of the directors of the Y.M.C.A. are successfully executed.

It is not definitely known what day Miss Addams will be in Columbia, but it probably will be Tuesday or Wednesday, according to latest information. The two organizations feel the mistress of Hull House has much in R. E. Chappell to E. F. Berry common with the work of the Y.M. and Y.W.C.A.

A. W. Harquist, outgoing secretary of the Y.M.C.A., made his final report | Cassie Harrice to T. L. Mcat a meeting of the Board of Directors Tuesday afternoon, and Paul H. Youn, the new secretary, stepped in to take up his duties as manager of

Two Measures Introduced in the Senate This Week.

Two measures were introduced in the Senate Monday to hasten along the time in Missouri when women can vote. One is a proposed amendment to the constitution striking out the word "male" in declaring the qualifications of a legal voter. This bill has a double purpose, the first being to give women the right of suffrage at all elections and the second to prevent foreigners from voting on their first papers. It was presented by Senator McCuliough of Knox. The second measure was introduced by Senator McCuliough of Gentry. It is Senate bill No. 1 and authorizes women to vote for president and vice president. This latter measure has the sanction of the women here from the various equal word "male" in declaring the qualifiwomen here from the various equal suffrage organizations.

"The suffragettes did not ask me to introduce the proposed constitutional amendment," said Senator McCulquest of anyone else. In my opinion, women cannot obtain the right to vote through a bill passed by the General Assembly and approved by the governor until the state constitution is changed. The constitution plainly says that only male citizens of legal qualifications can exercise the fran-
